14. A street play program on the subject of farmer suicides was held at the College of Social Work

Date: 01 October 2025

On 01-10-2025, Mrs. Panchphula Devi Patil Social Work College, Khadki, in association with the National Service Scheme, presented a preventive awareness street play on the topic of farmer suicides in colleges. The program began with offering a garland to the statue of Saint Shiromani Gadge Baba and lighting a lamp. Additionally, all the dignitaries present on the podium were welcomed by being presented with bouquets. On this occasion, considering the flood-affected situation in Maharashtra and the problems faced by farmers, a play on farmer suicides was presented on behalf of the B.S.W First Year students. The program was presided over by Dr. Sanket Kale, with the chief guest being Prof. Navnath Bade, principal of the college, Dr. Baliram Avchar. Special attendees included Dr. Kavita Madam and Dr. Ketan Wakode, Program Officer of the National Service Scheme. The students presented an excellent farmers' play. The message conveyed through the play was that no farmer in the future should commit suicide; rather, they should supplement farming with other professions to earn their livelihood and develop themselves. All students, faculty members, and non-teaching staff of the college attended the program in large numbers, and the program concluded successfully.
